

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR BUSINESS ECONOMICS

San Francisco Chapter
2008 MEMBERSHIP

The San Francisco Chapter of the National Association for Business Economics (SF NABE)

If you have an active interest in business economics, are associated with a private business in the capacity of proprietor, employee or consultant, or are associated with a business-related government activity, you are eligible for membership in this organization.

Here are some of the benefits of membership in SF NABE:

- Monthly meetings (except July & August) to discuss topics of interest to professionals and others interested in economic trends and business conditions in Silicon Valley. Members receive announcements of meetings, special sessions, and workshops.
- Opportunities to meet other professionals in the economics field.
- New Web page of SF NABE including past and future meeting dates, biographies, summaries of key meetings, links to NABE and other economic sites, special reports, and notices.
- On Line Membership Directory.

SF NABE is a non-profit professional organization. Dues and meeting fees are business expenses and may be tax deductible as authorized by law. Need more information? E-MAIL:
